

My Christmas WISHES

WHAT I REALLY WANT TO RECEIVE IS:

WHAT MY HORSE NEEDS IS:

OKAY, LET'S BE HONEST.

- ☐ Naughty?
- ☐ Nice?

But whatever box you ticked,
you're still getting a gift from
me. Happy Holidays!

INGREDIENTS

- Oats - 1 cup
- Whole wheat flour - 1 cup
- Carrot - 2 pcs
- Molasses - ½ cup
- Banana - 1 small pc
- Peppermint - 7-8 pcs

Gimme more!

CHRISTMAS HORSE COOKIES

Horse Cookie Recipe

PROCEDURE

01

Take a large bowl and mix all ingredients in it except the candies. Preheat the oven - set 375°F. Crush the peppermints and pour it into a cup. Cover the baking sheet with baking paper. Use a spoon to make little balls from the cookie dough.

02

Spread the balls all over the baking sheet. Use a spoon or fingers and press the balls a little to make them flatter and cookie-like. Alternatively, you can use cookie cutters to cut out fancy figures. Put the cookies into the oven and bake them for 10 minutes.

03

Take the yummys out of the oven and cover them with crushed peppermints. Let them cool. And voila, delicious Christmas horse cookies are ready to go! Watch your hooved friend enjoys his Christmas treats.

Merry Christmas!

FIND THE HORSE

Merry
Christmas!

Wish you lots of happy hooves!

FIND 8 DIFFERENCES

MERRY CINCH-MAS

&
Happy New Year

DECORATING BARN FOR CHRISTMAS

Christmas is a blissful holiday when everything around is sparkling and rustling. Don't let your horses stay dimmy these days. Let's add some Christmas sparkles to the barn too! Before you start grabbing all the Christmas-related knick-knacks, plan ahead how you want the barn to look like. And you definitely don't want to turn the place into a ball of blinding lights. A wise strategy is needed. Here are some go-to tips to consider.

Let There Be Light

The first step to spruce up the barn is to get the Christmas lights. Check for LED lights as they are cooler (white color) and they are electric bill friendly. You can set the lights all over the barn or make fancy figures with them. Choose the accent wall and create a centerpiece on the like of a snowman, Santa, or a bust of your hooved pal! Keep in mind that safety is the utmost aspect when decorating the barn. Make sure all the cords are hidden and anti-chew. Ideally, the lights should be decorated the way your horse can't reach for them.

Add More Trinkets

If Christmas lights are not enough for you, no probs, there are even more options. Garland may come in handy as a budget-friendly decoration. These beaded threads come in a variety of colors. Silver, gold, red, white, and blue are especially in demand. Drape the garland over the barn and don't be shy to mix the colors. Every corner and every post is friendly to such decoration. And again, bear in mind your hooved pal. Don't let him eat all the garlands. Alternatively (or additionally), you can use ribbons to spice up the barn. Don't overdo with the garlands as there's other stuff you can use. No Christmas can go without stockings! Take a few of them and hang out the stockings all over the barn.

DECORATING BARN FOR CHRISTMAS

Make a Scene

If you've got enough space, so why not create a stupendous Christmas scene at the nook of the barn? A wide array of characters could be involved - anything that will make you chuffed to bits this holiday. For instance, you can place an Ox as the symbol of 2021. Add some candles and garlands to make the scene hygge. You can also place a chair so your guest could take spellbinding photos of your composition.

Add a Wreath

Another significant Christmas doodad is a wreath. You don't need lots of them, just hang one or two in the spotlight. It's better to put a wreath outside the barn, not inside. As if the wreath contains seasonal plants, they may be poisonous to horses. Watch your hooved friend not to approach the decoration. Alternatively, you can make a DIY wreath and add the "ingredients" you desire. In the case of using improvised means like paper, cotton, fabric, home plants, you're likely to knock off its price, which is a plus. Make sure the wreath is far away from candles, just in case.

Don't Forget About the Barn Inhabitants

Now the barn is geared up for Christmas, but what about your hooved friends? Why not take a Christmas photo shoot with classy dresses? You'll definitely have a pleasant holiday by "awing" at your pet dressed as a Rudolf. Or as a Grinch, or an Elf. Wish you lots of happy hooves!

*Merry Christmas
&
Happy New Year!*

Enjoy your holidays with your loved ones!

Christmas Book

For horse lovers by horse lovers

